

Unit of Inquiry

Sharing the planet

Inquiry into the rights and responsibilities in the struggle to share finite resources with other people and other living things; communities and the relationship within and between them; access to equal opportunities; peace and conflict resolution.

Central idea

Finding peaceful resolutions to conflict leads to a better quality of human life

Lines of enquiry

Causes of conflict
Conflict management and resolutions

Key concepts explored in this unit

Responsibility
Causation
Connection

English

In English this half term we will be focusing on character comparison. We will explore short extracts range of classic texts: Skellig, The Woman in Black, Dracula and Frankenstein.

We will be reading Rooftoppers by Kathrine Rundell together as a class this half term.

Religious Education

Unit: what do the miracles of Jesus teach us?

Big question: do all people of faith live in peace?

Mathematics

In Maths this half term we will focus on a whole range of skills, including the following:

- Place value
- Negative numbers
- Formal methods for +, -, x and division

Remember by the end of this year, your child should know all times tables off by heart and their related division fact.

This half term's KIRF is:

During the first half term, we will be assessing and consolidating children's learning from the previous year, and homework will be set as appropriate

Physical Education

This half term pupils will be focussing on tactics and dexterity in hockey and football. Our year long objective is to develop physiological awareness and how this can help improve specific technique and relationship to strength, stamina and flexibility.

Homework

Homework will be set on a Friday and be expected to be returned the following Friday. Homework will consist of spellings and 3 sections from a CGP revision guide provided by school.

Daily reading is also essential in your child making good progress in their learning. All home reading should be recorded in your child's school planner.